

EXECUTIVE BRIEF

Partnering for the Information Advantage

Professional Services—working together on your journey to success

 3,000+ EIM experts

 100% product certified consultants

 40,000+ delivered engagements over 25 years

 2,000+ Managed Services customers

Organizations expect a lot from their enterprise information management (EIM) solutions to solve challenges and achieve business results. They require an exceptional user experience, from systems that are always available at optimal performance, while effectively securing information.

Implementing a successful EIM solution has many challenges and different points of risk where a project can fail. Not all organizations want to maintain the necessary in-house skills and expertise to plan, deliver and adopt a successful EIM solution.

OpenText Professional Services engages customers to enable successful digital transformation by providing comprehensive services across all phases of the EIM solutions lifecycle. These range from planning to implementation, through to adoption, operation and continuous improvement.

Plan strategically, execute tactically

- Business vision & EIM plan
- Planning: implement, adopt, operate
- Resource for success: project & center of excellence

- Involve the business & manage scope for early benefits
- Accelerate using best practices & expert tools
- Leverage EIM experts to go faster & reduce rework

- Communicate & mobilize
- Educate the team to build expert readiness
- Business & solution go-live hypercare

- Focus on the business experience
- Manage the application, maximize availability
- Benefit from improved solution

- Assess EIM adoption
- Learn lessons & refine plans; evolve & improve
- Foster buy-in & innovation
